Meetings Thursday Noon—the University Club of Pasadena—175 North Oakland

A ROSE, A RING, AND A RAINBOW

Members from more than 25 different Kiwanis clubs gathered at the Pasadena Hilton on Friday, December 30, 2005, for the International President's Luncheon. In addition to International President Steve Siemens, the head table included International President-Elect Nelson Tucker, District Governor Patti Barsotti, District Governor-elect George Francis, Division 10 Lieutenant Governor Bob Lee, Pasadena Kiwanis Club President Greg Wessels and Pasadena Rose Float Club President Dave Wallach.

In a presentation laced with humor, International President Siemens highlighted the meanings for Kiwanis of a rose—love, a ring—commitment, and a rainbow—making and keeping a promise. He also emphasized a renewed focus on each member as the source of Kiwanis' strength and therefore the first concern of the International Board.

Epitomizing these qualities of love, commitment, and keeping a promise were Reid Allen, who was recognized by International President, Steve Siemens, for his years of dedication to Kiwanis. International President-Elect Nelson Tucker was also recognized. Pasadena Kiwanis Immediate Past President Howard Miller was presented with a Hixon Fellowship Award by Steve Siemens.
