Last Thursday

This guitar thing is catching on! Our song this week was My Country Tis of Thee led by our musical master Howard Miller. Our Pledge of Allegiance was led by Greg Wessels, and we had a touching invocation by Dr. Bruce Wear. Thank you all for your strong leadership and touching ways. The guests we had present were Ken Schaefer from the Red Cross and Kellie Hardick from Community Bank (guest of Mel's). The following announcements were made:

- Please bring in gifts for Kiwanis International President's Raffle (4-6 from our club)
- See's Candy sales are way down; please consider a big order for presents this year!
- Chris Williams has helped the Altadena Club re-establish their Key Club at Muir.
- Inspire Pasadena is in the process of becoming more involved with Leadership Pasadena and our Kiwanis Club. Let Chris know if you want to be involved.
- Rosemary Children's Services' Christmas Party – this Friday at the Green House
- Villa Esperanza is having a Recognition Dinner Dec. 9th, 3p-7p at LaSalle High School.
- Laura Lopez conducted a toy drive for the kids at Union Station. A total of 26 volunteers including kids from her son's basketball team collected and donated hundreds of toys and she used Kiwanis' funds to purchase 9 cube organizers and totes for the toys – Amazing work Laura!
- President Williams reminded committee chairs to meet and plan.
- President Williams asked that every member continue to bring in new members!
- Karen Drew celebrated her second year with Brooke...happy dollars.
- Birthdays: Katy and Chi Ching (12/10) and Dave Robinson's anniversary (55 yrs)
- December Board Meeting is on 12/23 at 1:30 p.m. at Huntington Hospital.

The program was presented by the CEO of the American Red Cross here in Pasadena, Ben Green. Ben explained the organization and had many wonderful anecdotes about the building (among which is that they have filmed "Glee" there) and that our member George Falardeau has given his time and talents to the Red Cross over the years. Great program. As for the Joker's Wild drawing, As for the Joker's Wild, Bob Riegel pulled a 6 of clubs and won $6. The current amount of the jackpot is now up over $420!

Next Meeting, Thursday, December 16th

Nicola Keller will give us an update on her "State of the Aktion Club." This should be informative and interesting. We will save about 15 minutes at the end for a K-Kats Christmas Reunion...we'll be singing Christmas Karols the K-Kat way so bring your pipes!!

Wishing You All a Wonderful Holiday Season
