APRIL & MAY 2007

PLAY BALL!!!!

There was a lot of joy in Robinson Park on North Fair Oaks on Saturday, March 31, 2007, as kids, parents, coaches, local dignitaries, and supporters (including yours truly and Craig Wallace) celebrated Opening Day of West Pasadena Little League's 2007 Season. (For Craig's pictures, go to our web site: www.kiwanisclubpasadena.org.)

The world will little note nor long remember the final scores, but the kids will remember the excitement of playing the grand old game in front of family and friends. They will remember reaching 1st Base safely for the first time, even though the path taken was sometimes eccentric: You can eventually reach first by starting toward third base, it just takes a little longer that way.

The Center Field Fence sported a brand-new Pasadena Kiwanis Club Banner for all to see. (We are sponsoring one of the teams). The smell of roasted peanuts (Kiwanis peanuts?) and hot dogs cooking filled the air as youngsters playing for the Monarchs and Marlins vied at T-Ball, while older players—the Rangers and the Cubs—matched skills on the South Diamond.

We will return to the fields through the season, to cheer for all the kids. Join us—

Joe Moore, President and Head Cheerleader.

RE-BUILDING TOGETHER--PASADENA KIWANIS, KEY CLUBS, AND CIRCLE K

The email call is out to Pasadena Kiwanis, Key Club, and Circle K for volunteers to work on this year's assignment from Re-Building Together. These two Saturdays—April 28 and May 5-- fulfill the Kiwanis International's Total K Day goal: For Kiwanis members of all ages to work together for one or two days to give back to the community. We'll be looking at you, kids.

Contact Mel Smith (626/796-2332) and Reid Allen (626/793-6953) for Sponsored Youth
Contact Joe Moore (626/799-0101) for Re-Building Together.
